CONTINUITY OF INSTRUCTION

- During this unprecedented time, home learning is the way we will ensure delivery of instruction and the strengthening of academic skills.
- Home learning is designed to support students in their education through an online platform and supplementary instructional materials.

REMOTE LEARNING PARTICIPATION & EXPECTATIONS

- All students are expected to participate in home learning activities during this time.
- Learning materials and assignments are based on students' grade levels and are prioritized to include key foundational concepts and standards.
- Clear communication between teachers, students and parents/guardians is essential.
- Special education teachers, Academic Interventionist Specialists, ELL teachers and other service providers will continue to support students and work closely with teachers and families.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS BY GRADE LEVEL

The following general guidelines will help you structure home learning during the day. Home learning includes time spent learning new material, watching video lessons, participating in video chats and completing assigned work and activities. Students should be checking their online platform on a daily basis and following up with teachers where necessary.

PreK & K:

A combined total of 45 minutes each day for ELA and Math, plus additional time each week for learning in other areas as directed by teachers.

GRADES 1 & 2:

A combined total of 60 minutes each day for ELA and Math, plus additional time each week for learning in other areas as directed by teachers.

GRADES 3 & 4:

A combined total of 75 minutes each day for ELA and Math with an additional 20 minutes devoted to Science or Social Studies, plus additional time each week for learning in other areas as directed by teachers.

GRADES 5 & 6:

A combined total of 90 minutes each day for ELA and Math with an additional 45 minutes devoted to Science or Social Studies, plus additional time each week for learning in other areas as directed by teachers.
